Summary

I am a Junior fullstack React + TypeScript + NodeJS developer.

Ever since I can remember, I have loved to improve my skills, which is why I feel so at home in IT. My intuition and rapid learning abilities greatly facilitate my knowledge expansion.

I enjoy using my creativity and analytical mindset while programming. These skills allow me to break down problems into smaller tasks and find step-by-step solutions.

My studies and over 8 years of experience working with clients and teams in a construction company have significantly enhanced my communication skills
